From Notifications Nos. 1802 and 2194 Mug. 452-11 Dt 18th April and 21st May, 1913, it will be seen that there have been already 3 officials (D.C. Mysore, Ex. Engr., Mysore Distr., and Treasury Officer, Mysore)

and 3 non-Officials (Vice President and 2 others), the Treasury Officer being the Secretary of the committee. It is now proposed to add 2 non-Officials. It is not quite clear as to whether the Personal Assistant to the Hon. Chief is to be the ex-Officio Secretary in place of the Treasury Officer who is now serving as a Secretary on the Committee - Finance. Please ...

The D.C. has not explained what the work is for these two non-official members, and at the same time there seems to be no objection to his recommendation being sanctioned.

As regards the fee, the D.C. recommends the appointment of his Personal Assistant on fees of [illegible]

I do not know any reason in the no of non. officials that has been suggested. The reasons for the suggestion have to be ascertained before it can be accepted. Personally I am of opinion that the greater the number of a committee, the greater its effectiveness. There can be no objection to the P.A. being appointed Secy to the Committee in place of the Asst. Secy.

I have the honor to be,
